

Making the most of
a "forever home"

A vegetarian thrives
in cattle country

Barbados: the little island that could

Johnny Case
lives for The Gig

360 West

CIRCLE VIEW OF WHERE WE LIVE

YOUR MOM ALWAYS TOLD YOU
TO CARRY A JACKET...

WHAT TO WEAR NOW

SHE WAS RIGHT

$3.95 March 2011

Eat Drink

Tidbits, morsels and other tasty things

Sweets for the sweethearts

We know you're still working off that Valentine chocolate, but you'll need to forget calorie counting for one more day. Sweethearts Dessert Fantasy, the annual Lena Pope Home benefit, allows some of Fort Worth's best restaurants and chefs the chance to show off signature desserts and top-notch cake design. They'll compete for titles including the Tasters Award and the Fantasy Favorite Critics Award (judges include 360 West contributor Amy Culbertson). Tillman's Roadhouse Fort Worth will serve bite-size peanut butter pies (the big version is shown here), creamy mousselike peanut butter in a classic Joy of Cooking shortbread crust topped with chocolate and chopped nuts. Basic tasting tickets are $35; patron tickets with reserved seating and an hors d'oeuvres reception are $150. 7 p.m. March 6, Fort Worth Club, 306 W. 7th St., Fort Worth. 817-255-2616; www.lenapopehome.org.

Photo by Ralph Lauer

